

Dates 2021

18-29 October 2021

Target Audience

This course is for teachers of languages who wish to develop their proficiency in English. One will be addressed to a number of motivational activities to help students of English. Participants should have a minimum English language level corresponding to B2+ on the CFR.

Course Overview and Outcomes

The course will enable you to develop your English proficiency and improve your awareness of current methodology and materials. This will involve reviewing the principles and practices of English language teaching, looking at recent developments in teaching methodology. As a course participant you will have the opportunity to share your experience of teaching, examining the relationship between language, materials and methodology and reflecting on your practice. You will have the chance to explore the relationship between language and culture and the role that affect plays in language learning. You will also be given the opportunity to design some tasks round a piece of authentic material and try them through dedicated micro-teaching sessions with your course colleagues.

Content

Advanced Language Materials and Methodology includes content drawn from some or all of the following areas:
