Participants should have a minimum English language level corresponding to A2 on the CFR.

Course Overview and Outcomes

The course will enable you to improve your language ability and acquire practical strategies to improve your English independently. As a course participant you will develop your classroom management techniques, such as giving instructions, eliciting and asking effective questions and you will be able to identify relevant principles in designing materials, including language development resources. You will develop your own use of English to help your students maximise the amount of English they use in the classroom. You will also be given the opportunity to practise some of the classroom language learnt and try it through dedicated micro-teaching sessions with your course colleagues.
